GIVING TO GOD

from Joe Holman

Today is Easter. This is the day we celebrate the greatest gift ever given to us. Please be in prayer

Today we remember Jesus' resurrection, claiming victory over death and changing things for all believers for all time.

The gift offered through Jesus, and paid for by His sacrifice represents the radical giving we are called to model in our own giving.

Anything we can offer to God can only pale in comparison to what He has already given us. Over the past few weeks we've examined the many ways God has and will provide for us – past, present, and future – from His abundance, according to His riches, and generously motivated by His love for us.

Let's all work toward being models of His example, and grow in our giving back to God from the abundance with which He's blessed us.
